January 2002

2002 Leads Off with Best Ever January

TORONTO — Monday, February 4, 2002.

TREB Members reported 4,869 sales of single-family dwellings last month, making it the best January on record, TREB President David Pearce announced today. "The 4,869 sales is up 19% from the 4,080 sales seen in January 1997, our previous best January, and up - 57% from last year's 3,103 sales," the President said.

The news was just as cheery on the pricing front. "January's average price was $262,819, up 11% from the $235,535 recorded in January of last year, and the first time since 1990 that prices have broken the $260,000 mark," the president said.

The president also noted that the Board's total listing inventory in January was 14,397, down 9% from the 15,783 recorded last year.

"We expect that the healthy price increases we are seeing will lure potential home-sellers into the marketplace, thus increasing the amount and diversity of product in the marketplace.

Breaking down the total, 1,851 sales were reported in TREB's 28 West districts and averaged $241,942; 751 sales were reported in the 14 Central districts and averaged $368,459; 1,040 sales were reported in the 23 North districts and averaged $290,359; and 1,227 sales were reported in TREB's 21 East districts and averaged $206,710.

Neighbourhood Corner The City Core

In addition, there were 8 townhouse sales last month in C-1; the median price for these was $222,000, identical to the January 2001 figure.
